O R D E R (Oral)

(By Hon'ble Shri S.R. Adige)

All these OAs admittedly involving identical question of law and facts. They are disposed of by this composite order, a copy of which should be placed in all the OAs.

2. We have heard the learned counsel for both parties.

3. The learned counsel for the respondents has very fairly conceded at the bar, in the background of the contents of the reply filed by the respondents, that each of the applicants in these OAs has ^{worked earlier in time} ~~longer service~~ as casual labours than respondents No.9 to 14 in each of these OAs. He has also stated that the applicants in each of these OAs have been disengaged from service for reasons of which he is not aware, and which have not been disclosed in the respondents replies to the OAs.

4. In the light of these submissions made by respondents counsel, we dispose of these OAs with a direction to the respondents to consider the applicants immediately for reengagement as casual labours, in preference to outsiders and those with overall lesser length of service, subject to availability of work, and in accordance with the rules and instructions on the subject. Thereafter, those who become eligible for grant of temporary status in terms of the scheme formulated by the Department of Personnel and Training for grant of temporary status and regularisation of casual workers should be so considered by way of a detailed, reasoned and speaking order in accordance with law under intimation to each of the applicants with fixation of appropriate seniority. No costs.
