O R D E R (ORAL)

Hon'ble Shri J.P. Sharma, Member(J)

We find that the present application is totally premature in view of the order dated 24.2.95 where the respondents have reserved the right of the applicants to assail the matter after the decision has been taken in S.L.P. pending before 'Hon'ble Supreme Court.' It is hereby ordered that the applicants shall be governed by the decision of 'Hon'ble Supreme Court.'

Further the Vth Pay Commission is already seized of the matter regarding the revision of the scales of pay and the impugned order also mentions that 'this issue may be taken up with them in the meantime.'. The matter therefore is still being dealt with administratively. The respondents are within their right to apprise the Vth Pay Commission regarding any anomaly in granting the Ferro Printer scale in the grade of Rs.975-1540.

While disposing this application as premature we do observe that the applicants shall at liberty, if so advised, to raise this issue subsequently if the department or the expert body does not grant the reliefs to their satisfaction. We order accordingly.
