O R D E R (Oral)

The OA had been filed by the Applicant No.1, who is a regular Safaiwala with a prayer that the quarter allotted to the Applicant No.2 who is father of Applicant No.1, ^{and who is or} served in the office of respondents, be regularised in his name from the date his father retired i.e. 31.3.1993 and only normal rent for the said period be recovered from him. The learned counsel for the respondents filed their reply stating that the Competent Authority has decided to regularise the said quarter in favour of applicant No.1 from 1.4.1993 and normal rent would be charged from applicant No.1 for the said quarter from 1.4.1993. A copy of the letter dated 2.1.1997 to that effect has also been annexed with the reply.

2. Now that the reliefs sought for have been fully granted by the respondents, this OA has become infructuous. Therefore, OA is accordingly ~~dismissed~~^Q disposed of. No costs.
