The application having been heard on 19.11.1996
the Tribunal on the same day delivered the following :

O R D E R

CHETTUR SANKARAN NAIR (J), CHAIRMAN —

Applicant challenges A-I order of respondent.
Staff Selection Commission rejecting her application
on the ground :

"Photograph not signed"

According to applicant, this requirement was not indicated in the invitation of applications. In our anxiety to get at the crux of the matter we offered applicant the services of a counsel free of cost.
She declined this offer. We sent for the counsel for the Staff Selection Commission and required him to produce a copy of the notice and its annexures. That was produced before us. In the instructions to candidates, Appendix-I of the application form (iv) it is stated :

"An application will be summarily rejected at any stage of the recruitment process for having incomplete information/wrong information/misrepresentation of facts/left unsigned/submitted without fee/where due/without a signed photograph pasted at the appropriate place/not accompanied by attested copies..."

There is a clear stipulation as far as a signed photograph is concerned. These are domestic regulations which are not liable to be interdicted by a court in the light of the decision of the Supreme Court in Karnataka Public Service Commission & Ors. vs. B. M. Vijay Shankar & Ors. (1992) 2 SCC 206.

2. Application is dismissed.
