3. Respondents in their reply state that applicant fell under the category of supporting staff as he belongs to Group II Scientific and Technical Stream of Respondent Institute. They state that the issue of distribution of honoraria was referred to a Committee constituted to look into the grievances of beneficiaries/claimants of honoraria/consultancy. Applicant appeared before the Committee and after hearing him, the Committee recommended that he may be paid an additional amount of Rs.10,000/- only. Applicant was sanctioned Rs.10,000/- but he refused to accept the same. They state that the pattern of distribution of honorarium was as follows:

Team of Consultants	65%
Other S & Tech. Staff.	15%
Supporting Staff	15%
CSIR Welfare Fund	5%

4. These assertions of respondents in their reply have not been challenged or denied by applicant in any rejoinder.

5. In the light of the foregoing facts, no case has been made out by applicant to warrant interference in this OA which is dismissed. No costs.
