ORDER (Oral)

Hon'ble Shri A.V. Haridasan, Vice-Chairman(3)

The applicants seven in number who are working as Casual Labourers who have attained temporary status have sought the following reliefs in the application filed under Section 19 of the Administrative Tribunals Act., 1985:

(a) That the Judgment dated 29.11.1989 vide para 12 of the Judgment read with the additional affidavit dated 1.12.1992 filed on behalf of the respondents in C.C.P. 289/90 having been implimented all over the country may kindly be ordered to be implimented and all the benefits as ordered by the Hon'ble Supreme Court of India may kindly be ordered to be given to the applicants.

(b) That the consequential benefits on implimentation of the Judgment dated 29.11.1989 and the benefits contends in the judgment and annexure III of the affidavit dated 1.12.1992 such as increments of pay, grant of all other benefits as admissible to temporary Group 'D' employees of the department of posts may kindly be ordered to be given to the applicants. The consequential benefits and arrears of all such benefits as has been paid to such other employees on grant of temporary status and consequent upon treatment of at par with temporary group 'D' employees of the department of posta may kindly be ordered to be given. A large number of such benefits has already been paid by Respondent No.2 under his administrative control on the R.M.S. side.

2. The respondents do not dispute the claim of the applicants but they contend that the payment is being made. Learned counsel for the respondents submitted that if anything more remains to be given to them would be given without delay. In the light of the above statement and submissions made by the learned counsel for the respondents, we dispose of the
