O R D E R (ORAL)

Shri Justice Ashok Agarwal :

The case of the applicants in the present O.As.
is identical or at least similar to the applicants in 13

O.A. No.1753/97 and other connected matters which have been disposed of by a judgment and order passed by a Full Bench of this Tribunal on 25.11.1999. By the aforesaid order passed by the Full Bench, aforesaid O.As. are directed to be disposed of in terms of the Delhi High Court's judgment dated 26.5.1999 in the case of Man Sukh Lal Rawal & Ors. v. Union of India & Ors. (CWP No.4286/1997). In the aforesaid order the High Court after affirming the decision of the Tribunal dismissing the O.As. directed the respondents to prepare a scheme. The Full Bench, having regard to the directions issued by the Delhi High Court, by the aforesaid order passed on 25.6.1999, has disposed of the batch of O.As. in the light of the directions issued by the High Court in the aforesaid Writ Petition.

2. Present applicants have claimed the very same reliefs which were claimed in the O.As. before the Full Bench. As has been done in respect of the applicants in the O.As. which were carried to the High Court, their claim for regularisation was rejected by the Full Bench and the O.As. were disposed of in the light of the directions issued by the High Court.

3. As has been <sup>contended</sup> ~~done~~ in the present case by Shri Rajinder Pandita, the learned counsel appearing for respondents, the question of jurisdiction was also raised before the Full Bench. As has been done by the Full Bench, we also do not propose to go into that question. What we propose to do is to do exactly the things which have been done by the Full Bench, namely, to dispose of the present O.As. in the light of the decision of the High Court in the case of Man Sukh Lal Rawal (supra).

4. Present O.As. are accordingly disposed of in the light of the aforesaid observations. There shall, however, be no order as to costs.
