ORDER (Oral)

Hon'ble Shri A.V. Haridasan, V.C. (J)

The applicant, claiming to be senior most Physical Education Teacher in a Govt. Composite Model Senior Secondary School, has prayed that his name may be recommended for the State/National Award for his achievement on the ground that he has a meritorious service but has been ignored for such an award, which act according to him, amounts to hostile and discriminatory attitude.

Having heard the applicant in person and on a perusal of the O.A. and the connected records, we are of the considered view that the application does not merit admission. None of the applicant's legal rights is alleged to have been violated. It is the prerogative of the Government to confer National or State Award on
