Shri Justice A. P. Ravani —

The applicant who is serving as an Inspector in the Delhi Police has challenged the legality and validity of the order dated 11.10.1994 by which he has been imposed the penalty of stoppage of next increment for a period of two years without cumulative effect. The aforesaid penalty has been imposed on the ground of misconduct that though he was not in charge, he extended courtesy in the routine manner to a passenger at the Indira Gandhi International Airport and allowed him to go upto the Departure Hall. It is undisputed that the applicant has challenged the legality and validity of the aforesaid order before the appellate authority, that is, the Commissioner of Police, Delhi. The appeal was filed on 25.10.1994 which is said to be still pending.
