This is a review application filed against our orders dated 29.11.1996 wherein de novo enquiry was directed to be held and in the meantime not to evict the applicant from the quarter in his possession. We see that the orders have been passed in the presence of the parties and we see no ground to have any alteration of those orders since no valid ground has been raised before this Tribunal to set aside the said order. The respondents are at liberty to hold a de novo enquiry as quick as possible as
