Common Order(in circulation)

By V.K.Majotra, Member(Admnv) -

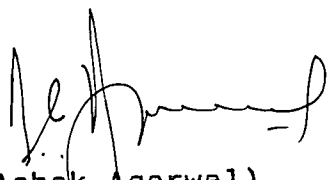

These review applications have been made against common order dated 10.4.2000 passed in OAs 2008 & 2058 of 1996 whereby the respondents were directed not to cancel the seniority list of Head Constable issued on 7.9.1992 and also that the seniority list issued by the respondents on 10.9.1996 was simultaneously quashed.

2. These review applications were filed initially on 29.11.2000 and re-filed on 11.12.2000 after removal of certain defects. The review applicant has filed applications for condonation of delay as MAs Nos.9 & 18 of 2001 contending that he was not impleaded as a party in the aforesaid OAs. He claims that he learnt about the order dated 10.4.2000 in the aforesaid OAs on 24.10.2000 when he inspected the records and the order pertaining to the OAs. Having inspected the records of the said OAs and the impugned order on 24.10.2000 the present RAs have not been filed within the prescribed time limit under Rule 17 of the Central Administrative Tribunal (Procedure) Rules, 1987. Basically this Tribunal is not empowered to entertain review applications outside the time limit prescribed for making review applications. We are fortified in our view by the decision of the Hon'ble Supreme Court in the case of K.Ajit Babu and others Vs. Union of India and others, JT 1997(7) SC 24.

3. Apart from the above, aforesaid order dated 10.4.2000 was based on the ratio in the matter of Direct Recruit Class-II Engineering Officers' Association Vs. State of Maharashtra and others, AIR 1990 SC 1607 in which it was held that a settled position should not be unsettled. In the said OAs the seniority disputes had been raised after a lapse of several years when in the meantime substantial action like promotions of various persons based on the said seniority list had already taken place. It was decided that the question of seniority should not be reopened because that would disturb the settled position which is not justifiable. In the matter of Union of India Vs. M.P.Singh, 1990 (Suppl) SCC 701 it was held that where only validity of rule / principle is challenged, it is not necessary to implead the parties other than the official respondents. In the aforesaid OAs the principle that the settled position should not be unsettled was decided. In such a situation it was not necessary to have impleaded the present review-applicant in the aforesaid OAs. Thus, even on merits, the review applications cannot be allowed. Accordingly, they are rejected at the circulation stage itself.
