ORDER (ORAL)

By Hon'ble Sh. V. Rajagopala Reddy, Vice Chairman (J)

Heard the counsel for the petitioner and the respondents.

2. It is suprising to see that the orders passed in 1997 giving the simple direction to convene a review DPC to give the benefit of promotion to the petitioner w.e.f. 1990 was totally ignored by the respondents. In spite of the order, against which the CP arises was passed in November 1999, the respondents seek to explain the delay. The order is yet to be implemented. This inaction of the respondents show total disobedience of the order of the Court. But for the fact <sup>that</sup> ~~here~~ the petitioner was found himself not vigilant, We may ~~not be~~ <sup>have</sup> ~~able~~ to take any action against the respondents in the contempt proceedings. As it is stated that the proceedings have already <sup>been</sup> issued to convene review DPC, We close the CP directing the respondents to convene the review DPC at the earliest for promotion to the post of Deputy Superintendent Grade-I. The CP is, accordingly, closed.
