ORDER (ORAL)

BY REDDY. J.

Heard counsel for the applicant. None appears for the respondents.

2. This CP arises out of the order passed by the Tribunal in OA No. 2741/97 dated 30.6.98. In the said judgment the learned counsel for the respondents submitted that the applicants have been re-engaged. It is now contended before us that the respondents had made an incorrect statement that they have ~~been~~ given the relief. In view of the notice the respondents had filed CWP No. 5003/98 questioning the order passed by the Tribunal. They have also moved CM No.9962/98 in the said Writ Petition for interim orders. While disposing of CM No.9962/98 High Court in its order dated 1.2.99 considered the contention raised by the learned counsel of either side and disposed it of. If the petitioner is aggrieved by the non-compliance of the ~~stay~~ order, the petitioner has to approach the High Court and may file the contempt petition before the High Court. As the matter is subjudiced before the High Court.

The CP is dismissed as not maintainable.
