By Justice Ashok Agarwal, Chairman

By an order passed on 2.8.2000 in OA No.1550/97, directions were issued to reinstate the applicant in the OA back in service w.e.f. 11.11.96 with all consequential benefits. Applicant in the said OA had expired pending the aforesaid OA and before the passing of the aforesaid order. In the circumstances, respondents were granted liberty to pay over the consequential benefits to the legal heirs of the deceased applicant after making an enquiry into the question as to who are the legal heirs of the deceased and disburse the consequential benefits to them after verification.

2. Applicant, in the present contempt petition, is the mother of the deceased and she claims to be the sole legal representative of the deceased. She has accordingly submitted her representations for payment of the consequential benefits. Copies of the representations have been annexed at Annexure P-2 collectively. No decision thereon has so far been taken by the respondents.

3. In the circumstances, we find that interests of justice will be duly met by disposing of the present petition at this stage itself even without issue of notices with a direction to the respondents to undertake the requisite enquiry in regard to the claim made by the applicant, ^{heir and} of her being the sole legal representative of the deceased and if her claim is found to be genuine, to take steps to make payment of the consequential benefits as directed by the aforesaid order of 2.8.2000. This be done expeditiously and within a period of three months from the date of service of a copy of this order. We direct accordingly. Present petition is disposed of in the aforestated terms.
