It is not disputed that the applicant has not been provided work by the respondents. The direction was to give the applicant preference over his juniors, freshers and outsiders as and when work was available. On the previous date of hearing, we found that the applicant was reluctant to join duties. We directed him to join the duties and the respondents were directed to take him on duty. That order dated 28.7.1998 had been complied with. There was no direction to make payment to the applicant at particular rate. The objection tried to be raised on 28.7.1998 is again tried to be raised today also. Circular dated 22.6.1998 issued by the respondents and received by the applicant contains denial to accept the appointment. In spite of this, we directed the respondents to take him on duty.
