Mr Justice B. C. Saksena, Acting Chairman

The learned counsel for the applicant states before us that during the pendency of the OA a revision filed by the applicant against the departmental appellate order had already been decided. With a view to file a consolidated OA, the learned counsel has sought permission to withdraw the present OA, which is granted and the OA stands disposed of accordingly.

Registry is directed to return to the applicant the copies of the OA which were filed for the purpose of service on the respondents.
