3. It appears that applicants represented on 10.9.97 to the Respondents for being relieved, but no action has been taken so far.

4. Shri Gangwani states that applicants are <sup>being</sup> discriminated against for not being relieved although their colleagues ~~who~~ have been so relieved.

5. The O.A. is disposed of at preliminary hearing stage with the direction to Respondents to relieve the applicants in terms of their own transfer orders dated May, 1997 and June, 1997 subject to <sup>fulfilment of</sup> the conditions contained therein. No costs.
