ORDER

HON'BLE MR. S.R. ADIGE VICE CHAIRMAN (A).

Applicants who had been enrolled as Home Guards in Govt. of NCT of Delhi for the last 18-20 years had approached the Tribunal in the aforementioned OAs challenging the termination of their engagement by respondents, and sought regularisation, with all consequential benefits.

2. These OAs were heard collectively by a Division Bench of the Tribunal. The order dated 12.12.97 which was drafted by one of the Hon'ble Members of the Bench and which contained various directions was not signed by the other Hon'ble Member, who proceeded to record his own separate opinion in the matter. Thereupon the Hon'ble Member who had initially drafted the "order," drafted a further "order," in which he recorded that there was no disagreement of any kind, and proceeded to give certain further directions. However, this further "order" was also signed only by the Hon'ble Member who had drafted it.

3. Thereupon respondents filed the marginally noted RAs seeking review of the aforesaid "order."

4. These RAs were heard by another Division Bench in which the Hon'ble Member who had recorded his separate opinion was also a party. By order dated 29.1.99 the Bench held that the "order" dated 12.12.97 was not an order in law and accordingly no review would lie against it. The Bench after noting the provisions of Section 26 AT Act held that in the facts and circumstances, it would be appropriate that the matter under adjudication be placed before Hon'ble

Chairman for referring the matter to a third member or for constituting a full Bench as may be deemed appropriate. Accordingly the 'order' dated 12.12.97 in DA No. 1753/93 and other connected DAs was placed before Hon'ble Chairman for necessary orders under Section 26 AT Act.

5. Accordingly on the orders of Hon'ble Chairman this Full Bench was constituted to adjudicate the matter.

6. In this connection, we have heard S/Shri Rishikesh, J.C.Madan and U.Srivastava for the applicants in these DAs and Shri Jog Singh and Shri Rajendra Pandita for respondents.

7. At the outset it is important to mention that the reliefs claimed by applicants in these DAs are/no longer Res Integra in view of the Delhi High Court's order dated 26.5.99 in CWP No.4286/97 Mansukh Lal Rawal & Ors. Vs. UOI & Ors. challenging the CAT PB order dated 21.3.97 in DA No.1018/95 and connected DAs, wherein the applicants in those DAs had also claimed similar reliefs as claimed in the present DAs.

8. In its aforesaid order dated 26.5.99 the Delhi High Court held that the applicants in those DAs were not entitled to be regularised as Home Guards, because the genesis, history and concept of the Home Guards clearly showed that it was not an 'employment' or a 'source of employment', but was a volunteer body where citizens voluntarily offered their services for the benefit of society, Hence in regard to Home Guards, the concept of regularisation itself did not exist except in the case of personnel involved in training, command or control. The Delhi High Court also held that such of those Home Guards who had completed their existing tenure of three years as provided in Rule 8 Delhi Home Guard Rules had not been able to make out any case in their support, even if it was the fifth or sixth such tenure. However, it noted that many of those applicants had rendered services as Home Guards for several years, in some cases for as many as 20 years, and it felt it would be unfair to them to be suddenly told that when their existing tenure came to an end they would no longer be enrolled, because in such a situation, it would be extremely difficult for them to look for a job in the open market. The judgment records that the Court was informed by the learned counsel for Respondents No. 2 and 3 that in view of the directions given by the Tribunal some policy was being framed to ensure that there was no pick and choose with regard to the persons who had to be enrolled or re-enrolled and those whose tenure was not to be extended, given the fact that many of the duties performed by Home Guards were of a permanent nature, and the fact that there was such severe unemployment in the country, hope was expressed that respondents would be alive to this situation, and frame a transparent and workable policy in this regard within six months.

9. It is in this background that the submissions made by learned counsel on either side require to be considered.

10. Both Shri Rishikesh and Shri Madan have urged that respondents should be directed to formulate the Scheme forthwith and have pointed out that the six months period would expire on 25.11.99. They have emphasised that the parameters of the Scheme should be such that it is based upon seniority, and have prayed that till the scheme is brought out, respondents should be directed to maintain the status quo. Shri Srivastava has contended that even during the preparation of the scheme, those enrolled as Home Guards are being disengaged and respondents must be directed to stop this.

11. On behalf of respondents, Shri Jog Singh and Shri Pandita have questioned the jurisdiction of the CAT to entertain these applications on behalf of Home Guards, and have cited various rulings in this connection. In so far as the formulation of the scheme is concerned, while Shri Pandita appeared to suggest that the Scheme for enrollment of Home Guards was embedded in the relevant Manual and instructions itself. Shri Jog Singh upon instruction from his clients, some of whom were present in Court invited attention to respondents' DM dated 10.9.99, a copy of which is taken on record but at the same time also stated that the Scheme was still under preparation.

12. In so far as the submissions of learned counsel for the applicants is concerned, the Delhi High Court's judgment dated 26.5.99 is clear and specific, and in the light of its contents it would not be appropriate for this Tribunal to issue any direction to respondents at this stage to define the parameters within which the scheme should be formulated or indeed to issue any directions till it is brought out. Furthermore no direction can be issued in regard to those who are not applicants in the present OAs.

13. As regards the submissions of learned counsel for respondents, the question whether the Tribunal has jurisdiction to entertain applications from Home Guards or not, was not an issue on which there was any difference of opinion between the Hon'ble Members who had initially heard the OAs. The Delhi High Court also in its order dated 26.5.99 has nowhere held that the Tribunal has no jurisdiction to entertain these OAs. Hence we do not propose to go into this question whether the Tribunal has jurisdiction or not while disposing of this reference. As regards the Scheme, suffice it to say that respondents' OM dated 10.9.99 cannot be construed to be the scheme contemplated in the Delhi High Court's judgment dated 26.5.99.

14. In conclusion these OAs are disposed of in terms of the Delhi High Court's judgment dated 26.5.99 in Mansukh Lal Rawal's case (supra). No costs.
