4. Appended to the OA is a copy of Memo dated 27.5.92 (Annexure-P4) issued from Dte. of Education (Vigilance Branch) asking him to state whether he or any member of his family is working as a Property Dealer in the name and style of "Manglam Properties". Copy of applicant's reply dated 9.6.92 (Annexure-A5) is also on record denying any connection. Shri Charya states that he has heard nothing further in the matter, but respondents have illegally and arbitrarily denied his client's promotion.

5. Applicant also states that respondents have released a seniority list of Vice Principals (Annexure-P-2) in which applicant's name finds mention at Sl.No.535 with seniority of 592. Applicant contends that in April, 1992 respondents promoted incumbents from Sl's No.536 to 734, while omitting him although his position was at Sl.No.535.

6. These averments remain unchallenged in absence of any reply filed by respondents.

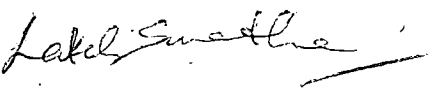

7. We also note that applicant had represented to respondents regarding his grievance on 18.12.96 (Annexure-P3) which Shri Charya states remained unreplied to.

8. In so far as applicant's claim for promotion from 1992 is concerned, we note that this OA was filed in 1997 and hence that claim is barred by limitation, but in so far as applicant's claim for promotion from the date his juniors were promoted in 1996 with consequential benefits is concerned, we direct respondents to consider the same in accordance with rules and instructions, subject to applicant being fully eligible for the same both as regards educational and experience/qualification as well as from the vigilance angle and pass a detailed, speaking and reasoned order under intimation to him within 3 months from the date of receipt of a copy of this order. No costs.
