ORDER

delivered by Hon'ble Shri K.Muthukumar, Member (A):

Counsel for the parties except Shri Rishi Kesh, counsel for review applicants in RA Nos. 42/98, 126/98 and 118/98 are present and have been heard today

2. These RAs have been filed against the order dated 12.12.1997 passed in OA No. 1753/97 and other connected OAs. Notices were issued in these RAs to the opposite side and wide publicity was also given in the leading newspapers.

3. Shri Jog Singh, learned counsel for the review applicants points out that the order under review cannot be treated as a final order as it does not bear signatures of both the Members constituting the Bench. Both the Members have signed their individual orders and the operative portion of the order has also not been signed by both the Members.

4. We have seen the order and find that this order cannot be reviewed as the same was not signed by both the Members. While the Member (A) constituting the Bench passed a dissenting order stating ^{that} "I have read the detailed order passed by my learned Brother, with due respect I am unable to persuade myself to agree with some of the premises taken and the conclusions arrived thereon," and issued separate direction.

5. Subsequently the then Vice Chairman (J), passed a final order which has been signed only by him and does not bear the signatures of the other Member constituting the Bench. In view of this we are of the considered view that this order is not an order in law and accordingly no review would lie at this stage in view of the facts and circumstances of the case.

6. These review applications are disposed of accordingly.

7. In terms of Section 26 of A.T. Act, 1985 if a Bench consisting of two members passes dissenting orders and there is no common order passed by both the Members of the Bench, it is appropriate that the matter under adjudication is placed before the Hon'ble Chairman for referring the matter to a third member or for constituting Full Bench as may be deemed appropriate. In the circumstances, we direct that the order dated 12.12.1997 in OA 1753/97 and other connected OAs may be placed before the Hon'ble Chairman for necessary orders under section 26 of A.T Act, 1985.
