labourers. The respondents had taken time with an expectation that screening will be completed within four weeks but the respondents are on the job and they may require another four weeks to complete the process.

The respondents are directed to screen all the petitioners involved in this OA and intimate the result thereof to the learned counsel appearing on behalf of the applicants within one week.

In view of the above directions, no further order is required from this court. It is clarified that in the event the applicants are found fit while screening, all the consequential benefits under the Scheme shall be given to them. This OA are disposed of accordingly. There shall be no order as to costs.
