appears for the applicant and he Prayed further time be granted to move an application for condonation of delay cause in filing this application in 1994 for a cause of action which has been arisen sometime in 1991. An application for condonation of delay can accompany the application when there is a clear averment in the title of the application that the application is barred by time. Our Para 3 says that the application is in time. In view of this such a Prayer cannot be granted. However, the learned counsel wants to withdraw the application with liberty to file a fresh application as advised according to law for condoning the delay. Without expressing any opinion we allow the applicant to withdraw this application with liberty to file a fresh one so advised according to law of limitation.
