Learned proxy counsel submits that counsel for the applicant is busy in the High Court. Learned counsel for the respondents however submits that the matter is subjudice before the Hon'ble High Court and the operation of the order against which the C.P. arises has been stayed by the High Court in CWP.2679/99 by order dated 3.5.99. It is stated, in that order, that on the deposit of an amount of Rs.30,000/- the operation of the impugned order remains stayed.

2. Now counter has been filed before us stating that the amount has been paid by Cheque. It is also submitted that the petitioner also passed away since filing of the C.P. and the Legal Representatives have not been brought on record. The CP, therefore, remains abated.

3. In the circumstances, the C.P. is dismissed.
