ORDER (ORAL)

Hon'ble Dr. Jose P. Verghese, Vice-Chairman

This Contempt of Court Petition has been filed for non compliance against two prior orders and the last order was that the petitioners would be given due preference for regular appointment considering their past service. The respondents' compliance affidavit states that they have been given 20% grace marks for the past service and due preference was given to them as per our orders. We are not looking into the merit of the percentage given for the selection. We suggested to the respondents that they may consider them for the next vacancy whenever they advertise for the said post on account of their past service. The respondents have no objection to do so under the orders of this Court being passed today. The respondents, therefore, shall consider the case of the petitioners whenever the next vacancy, regular or otherwise, in nature arises, in accordance with the rules.

The C.P. is disposed of. Notices issued are discharged.
