Smt. Lakshmi Swaminathan, Vice-Chairman (J)

Heard both the learned counsel on CP 373/2000.

2. Mrs. Sumedha Sharma, learned counsel for the respondents has submitted that in the additional affidavit filed by the respondents dated 5-2-2001, they have stated that due payments have already been made to the applicant as per the directions of the Tribunal dated 23-5-2000 and 9-1-2001. She has further submitted that nothing further remains by way of implementation of the Tribunal's order. However, Shri S.K.Gupta, learned counsel, disputes this, stating that while he is satisfied on the one hand that certain payments have been made but still certain grievances remain against the respondents in terms of the consequential benefits. He has relied on the Supreme Court decision in J.S. Parihar Vs. Ganpat Duggar & Ors. (1996 SCC (L&S) 1422).

3. In view of what has been stated above by the learned counsel for the parties and the order passed by the respondents in pursuance of the Tribunal's judgement dated 23-5-2000 in OA 2343/1996 we are satisfied that no purpose will be served in continuing with the contempt petition as the respondents have complied with the orders. If any further grievance of the applicant survives with the respondents, it is open to him to pursue such remedies, as advised, in accordance with law.
