ORDER (ORAL)

Mr. Justice S.K. Dhaon, Vice-Chairman

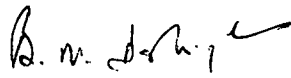

The applicant apprehends that he may be reverted. The learned counsel for the applicant states that a decision has been taken by the department to revert the applicant. However, a copy of the said decision is not on record. Learned counsel for the applicant states that the applicant has been informed of the decision.

2. Learned counsel relies upon a decision of the Madras Bench of the Tribunal in the case of N.K. Murthy Vs. Union of India & Others. This case merely states that even in the absence of any order, an application under Section 19 of the Administrative Tribunals Act, can be entertained. On the peculiar facts of the case, the Madras Bench held that an application was maintainable even in the absence of a formal order. This case is not apposite.

Shy

The application is rejected as premature.
