ORDER

[per Hon'ble Sri Justice V. Rajagopala Reddy, Vice Chairman (J)]

The RA is filed by the respondent in the OA on the ground that it was disposed of by an ex parte order in the absence of detailed facts on record. It is seen from the order that the impugned order was not interfered with and that a direction was given to give the benefit under the rules to grant temporary status and to consider the case as per law. From the nature of the above order it cannot be said that there was any direction given to the respondent without hearing them. The respondents were only directed to act in accordance with law. I do not, therefore, find any ground to recall the order. The ~~order~~ RA is, therefore, dismissed in circulation.
