2. Learned counsel for the respondents informs that this O.A. has become infructuous as the applicant's suspension has already been revoked by an order dated 23.1.2001.

3. As regards applicant's second claim regarding compensation for mental torture, the Tribunal is not empowered to grant such a relief.

4. Under the circumstances, this O.A. stands disposed of as having become infructuous. If applicant has still any grievance, he is at liberty to approach this Tribunal again by filing a fresh O.A. No costs.
