O R D E R (ORAL)

By Smt. Lakshmi Swaminathan, Vice Chairman (J)

This case was partly heard on 18.5.2001 when learned counsel for the applicant had submitted that some steps have been taken by the Respondents towards the reliefs prayed for by him in the O.A. by way of grant of pay scale. To-day learned counsel for the applicant has submitted a copy of the order issued by the respondents dated 27.6.2001, copy placed on record. Learned counsel has further submitted that in the light of the order issued by the respondents, he no longer wishes to press the O.A. as the respondents have substantially granted the reliefs prayed for by him in para 8 of the O.A.

BC

2. In view of the above facts and order passed by the respondents (supra), the O.A. is disposed of as having become infructuous . No order as to costs.

3. Later Ms. Anuradha Priyadarshani , learned counsel appeared for the Respondents.
