By Shri V.K. Majotra, Member(A)

Learned counsel for the applicants stated that he does not wish to file rejoinder and synopsis of arguments submitted on behalf of the applicants on 22.1.2001 may be taken into consideration. I have heard both the counsel at length and perused the material on record.

2. The learned counsel of the respondents brought to my notice order dated 16th February, 2001 in OA 376/2001, Delhi Home Guards Welfare Association (Delhi Pradesh) Vs. Lt. Governor of Delhi and Others) read with order dated 20.12.2000 (Shri Dhunilal and Ors Vs. The Chief Secretary, Govt. of NCT, Delhi and Ors) in OA 1974/2000 in which it has been held that the Home Guards do not come within the jurisdiction of this Tribunal. The learned counsel also brought to my notice order dated 16th February, 2000 in OA 376/2001 in which though the applicants' counsel has referred to orders of the Hon'ble High Court of Delhi dated 18.1.2001 in CWP 375/2001 and CM 649/2001 yet as the Hon'ble High Court had not stayed the operation of the aforesaid order, no relief was granted to the applicants in that OA. The matter is also covered by judgement in OA 493/2000 decided on 20.10.2000 Upendra Tripathi and Others Vs. Government of NCT of Delhi and Others where it was held that the Home Guards have a right to make a representation to the Government and have not to approach the Court seeking to quash the order of discharge. In the circumstances, following the above judgements, the OA is accordingly dismissed, however, without any cost.
