ORDER (Oral)

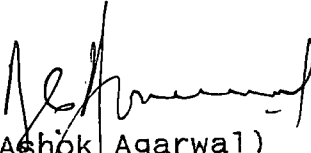

By Justice Ashok Agarwal, Chairman

Present OA, we find is not maintainable in the Tribunal as MTNL who are respondents herein have not been brought within <sup>its</sup> ~~the~~ jurisdiction of ~~this~~ <sup>therefore</sup> Tribunal. The Tribunal has <sup>L</sup> no jurisdiction to entertain the present OA.

2. Moreover, applicants No. 1 and 2 are involved in one incident, applicants No. 3 and 5 are involved in altogether another incident and applicant No. 4 is involved in yet another incident. The present OA, therefore, suffers from mis-joinder of causes of action. The present OA is, therefore, not maintainable on the aforesaid ground also. As far as suspension orders which are impugned in the present OA are concerned, pending the OA, suspension orders of applicant No. 1,2&4 have been revoked. As far as the aforesaid applicants are concerned, reliefs claimed by them have now been granted. <sup>As for as</sup> Applicants No. 3 & 5 are concerned, they are involved in an entirely different incidents. They have been placed under suspension by an entirely different order. They, therefore, cannot <sup>order</sup> claim withdrawal of suspension, based on the withdrawal of the suspension order of applicants No. 1,2 & 4. The claim made by applicants No. 3 & 5, therefore, has to fail even on merits.

3. For the forgoing reasons, present OA is dismissed. No order as to costs.
