Justice V S Aggarwal:

This Tribunal in OA-1835/2000 decided on 6.2.2002
had directed the respondents:

"5. In the result we dispose of this O.A. calling upon Respondents to take action to refer the case of applicants also to the Arbitrator, who in turn is requested to conclude his deliberations and declare his Award as expeditiously as possible and preferably within six months from the date of receipt of a copy of this order. The Arbitrator is also requested to consider any prayer made by applicants for a personal hearing, before giving his Award."

2. The grievance of the applicant is that despite the directions, no steps have been taken to comply with the directions of this Tribunal.

3. At this stage, when the directions of this Tribunal gave some scope for delay because the directions were to comply "preferably within six months", we dispose of the present Contempt Petition with a direction that within three months of the receipt of the certified copy of the present order, the directions of this Tribunal shall be complied with.

4. Subject to aforesaid, Contempt Petition is disposed of.
