ORDER(ORAL)

Mr. N.V. Krishnan:

When this case came up before us on 24.2.94
we noted that the last proceeding in this case was 11.2.89 when the applicants were not represented.
We felt that as the case has been taken up after a long interval it would be in the interest of justice to issue a notice to the applicants about the next date of hearing. Accordingly, a notice was issued to the applicants by registered post on 1.3.94. The acknowledgement card has not been received. As sufficient time has elapsed, we presume service of notice on the applicants. We notice in this connection that the applicants have not been appearing consecutively on five occasions in 1989 after 1.8.89 which was the date on which they were last present. In the circumstances, we are of the view that the applicants do not appear to be interested in proceeding with this case. Accordingly, this O.A. is dismissed in default.
