JUDGEMENT(ORAL)

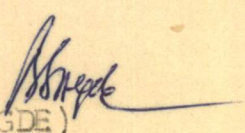

(Delivered by Sh.S.Gurusankaran, Member(A))

Heard Sh.P.T.S.Murthy,counsel for the applicant and Sh.P.H.Ramchandani,counsel for the respondents
No.1 & IV and Shri M.L.Verma,counsel for the respondent
No.II.

As per order sheet dated 12.5.93, learned counsel for the applicant had sought for two months time to remove the office objection regarding the MP filed for bringing the legal heirs on records, since the original ⁴applicant has expired. We find from the MP filed that even in that the date of death of the original applicant had not been mentioned. In spite of adjournment given, Legal heirs have not been able to remove the office objection. Ld. counsel for the applicant prays for further adjournment. We find that no sufficient grounds have been made for granting further adjournment since the counsel himself stated at the Bar that the original applicant expired in April, 1992. Even the MP for bring the legal heirs on records was filed only in February, 1993. Till May, 1993 office objection of the registry was not attended to and even after a further two months adjournment given, the position still remains the same. Hence the MP is rejected. Since the MP is rejected legal heirs have not yet been brought on record and the applicant expired in April, 1992, this application is dismissed as not maintainable.
