JUDGEMENT (ORAL)

(By Hon'ble Mr. Justice V.S. Malimath, Chairman)

The case of the petitioner, Shri Mam Chand, is similar to the case which we just now disposed of, namely, O.A. 414/88, M.D. Pant Vs. Union of India through the Director-General of Health Services, Ministry of Health and Family Welfare, New Delhi & Anr. Hence, the question of granting relief by way of regularisation of his service as Junior E.C.G. Technician does not arise. In this case, we are informed that the petitioner has since got promotion in his regular cadre as Upper Division Clerk. He has, however, continued as Junior E.C.G. Technician which is an equivalent post. As the petitioner has already got promotion in the cadre of Upper Division Clerks, there is no need to issue directions to the respondents that the petitioner's service as Junior E.C.G. Technician shall not be disturbed until the post is filled by
