By Hon'ble Mrs. Justice Vijay Lakshmi, Member-J :-

No one is present on behalf of the petitioner either in respondent is present online.

2. Learned counsel for the respondents submitted that the order has been substantially complied with by the respondent and he has already filed compliance affidavit in this regard. It is further submitted that perhaps due to the reason that the order has already been complied by the respondents, no one has appeared on behalf of the petitioner to press this contempt petition. Learned counsel for the respondent has prayed that the contempt proceedings should be closed and the notice may be discharged.

3. In view of the above facts and circumstances, the contempt proceedings are closed and notice, issued to the respondent, is discharged. However, liberty is given to the petitioner to approach this Tribunal again, if any, grievance is left.
