ORDER (ORAL)PER: SURESH KUMAR MONGA, MEMBER (J)

Present Contempt Petition has been filed by the petitioner alleging willful disobedience of the order dated 20.12.2019 passed by this Tribunal in Original Application No. 170/00540/2019

2. A perusal of the order dated 20.12.2019 reveals that while disposing of the Original Application, the respondents were granted six weeks time to implement the said order.

3. At the very outset, Shri M.V. Ramesh Jois, learned counsel representing the respondents, submitted that the respondents had filed a Miscellaneous Application No. 170/00350/2020 seeking extension of time to implement the order dated 20.12.2019 passed by this Tribunal in Original Application No. 170/00540/2019. The said MA has been partly allowed and the respondents have further been granted two months more time to implement the order dated 20.12.2019. Therefore, the present Contempt Petition does not survive.

4. The fact, that the respondents have further been granted two months more time to implement the order dated 20.12.2019 passed in Original Application No. 170/00540/2019, has not been disputed by Shri Rajagopal, learned counsel representing the petitioner.

5. In view of the above, the Contempt Petition does not survive and the same is disposed of having been rendered infructuous. However, the petitioner shall be at liberty to get it revived in the eventuality of non-compliance of the order dated 20.12.2019 passed by this Tribunal in Original Application No. 170/00540/2019 within the aforesaid extended period of two months.

6. Rule of the Court is discharged.
