ORDER (ORAL)

PER: RAKESH KUMAR GUPTA, MEMBER (A)

Shri N.B.Patil, learned counsel representing the respondents has stated in his reply statement that the relief sought for by the applicant in the OA has already been granted to the applicant. He, therefore, stated that the OA has become infructuous in view of grant of relief to the applicant sought for by him in the OA.

2. Shri B.Venkateshan, learned counsel representing the applicant has also concurred with the statement made by the learned counsel for the respondents.

3. Since the relief as prayed for by the applicant has already been granted, the OA is liable to be disposed of being rendered infructuous.

4. Accordingly, the OA is disposed of having been rendered infructuous. No order as to costs.
