learned counsel, applicant's grievance arose when she was allocated Vadodara which was her fifth preference.

4. Learned counsel drew my attention to the OM dated 04.06.2020 issued by DoPT on the subject Allocation of Zones to Inspectors (Central Excise)- Implementation of the orders of the Central Administrative Tribunal in the matter of ShriSunder Singh vs. Union of India & Others (OA.3494/2009) and submitted that on the basis of said OM, many candidates had been re-allocated to their preferred zones without losing their seniority. Applicant did make representation before the authority dated 17.02.2020 with a request to allocate her Chandigarh zone which was her 1st preference against general category seats. It was submitted by the learned counsel that said representation is still pending and has not yet been disposed of. Learned counsel submitted that he would be satisfied if a direction is issued to the respondents – competent authority to consider and dispose of the same in the light of OM dated 04.06.2020 within a time frame.

5. Sri Sanjay Goel, learned Sr. C.G.S.C. appearing for the respondents fairly submitted that respondents would have no objection in directing for consideration of the pending representation.

By accepting the prayer made by the learned counsel and not objected by the learned counsel for the respondents and without expressing anything on merits, I direct the respondents – the competent authority to consider and dispose of the pending representation dated 17.02.2020 in the light of OM dated 04.06.2020, as mentioned above, by passing a reasoned and speaking order within a period of three months from the date of receipt of this order. The decision to be taken by the competent authority on the said representation shall be communicated to the applicant forthwith.

7. The OA is disposed of as above at the admission stage itself. No order as to costs.
