O R D E R(ORAL)

By Ramesh Singh Thakur, JM:-

This Original Application has been filed by the applicants for claiming the benefit of MACP as per the law settled by the Jodhpur Bench of this Tribunal in the matters of Kishan Lal vs. Union of India, wherein the Tribunal has held that for the purpose of MACP, the services rendered prior to absorption shall be calculated.

2. It has been submitted by the counsel for the applicants that the applicants have made the representations to the respondent department on the basis of judgment passed by our Co-ordinate Bench at Jodhpur. It has been further submitted by the counsel for the applicant that the Hon'ble

High Court of Rajasthan at Jodhpur has also upheld that the benefit of prior service before absorption shall also be granted for the purpose of MACP.

3. We have been informed by the counsel for the applicant that the SLP against the order passed by Hon'ble High Court of Rajasthan at Jodhpur has also been dismissed.

4. At this stage the counsel for the applicants submit that the applicants will be satisfied if the respondents are directed to decide the representation Annexure A-1(Colly.) in a time bound manner, wherein, the applicants have represented to the respondent department on the basis of judgment passed by the Jodhpur Bench of this Tribunal and also as per the law settled by the Hon'ble High Court of Rajasthan at Jodhpur.

5. We have considered the matter and we are of the opinion that the representation is pending before the respondent department and furthermore the law has been settled by the Jodhpur Bench of this Tribunal and also by the Hon'ble High Court of Rajasthan at Jodhpur.

6. In such circumstances we direct the respondent authorities to decide the representation of the applicant at

Annexure A-1 within a period of four weeks after receiving the order of this Tribunal.

7. Needless to say that the respondents shall pass the reasoned and speaking order.

8. With these observations the Original Application is finally disposed of at the admission stage itself.
