ORDER

(Pronounced by Shri G. Sreedharan Nair, Judicial Member)

In this application the applicant, a Ticket Collector attached to the Northern Railway, has challenged the order transferring him from Allahabad to Moradabad. The main ground urged is that the applicant has only about a year of service more and as such the order of transfer is malafide.

A reply has been filed on behalf of the respondents.

That the applicant is to retire from service next month is not disputed. The order of transfer has not yet been implemented in view of the interim stay allowed by this Tribunal. In the circumstances, taking into account the fact that the applicant is to retire from service next month, the impugned order of transfer is hereby quashed on that ground.

This application is allowed as above.
