JUDGMENT (ORAL)

Heard the applicant in person and Shri S.N. Sikka, Counsel for Shri K.L. Sikka. He has stated that the applicant had already been taken back in service and arrears of Rs.58,631 have already been paid consequential other benefits on 30.5.1990. The applicant admits that this amount has been received by him but according to him, this is not the full amount and he has to receive some bonus etc. He has not given the details of what is admissible to him. If he has any further claim against the Government, he should make a representation to the authorities giving full details and if he has still a grievance, he may fill a fresh application before this Tribunal.

2. Notice of contempt is discharged. The CCP is disposed of accordingly.
