O R D E R (Oral)

Hon'ble Shri Justice S C Mathur, Chairman

1. Shri V K Rao, the learned counsel for the respondents stated that the reliefs claimed have already been granted to the applicants and therefore the application has become infructuous. On 26.10.94, the learned counsel for the applicants had prayed for time to obtain instructions. No one has appeared to-day to controvert the statement made by the learned counsel for respondents. It appears that the applicants are no longer interested in pursuing the application. Accordingly, this application is dismissed in default ^{of} ~~for non~~ appearance on behalf of the applicants. There shall be no order as to costs. Interim order, if any operating, shall stand discharged.
