J.P. SHARMA:

ORDER (ORAL)

Both the applicants took the Sub Inspector of Delhi Police Examination, 1989. They were declared successful being treated as departmental candidates, but subsequently, when their applications were scrutinised, it was noticed that the applicants of both the OAs were not having the requisite service for being treated as departmental candidates. As such, Vijender Singh was treated as a Scheduled Caste candidate and Rameshwar Prasad Meena was treated as a Scheduled Tribe candidate. On the basis of that, it was found that the applicants did not obtain sufficient marks to obtain sufficient 'cut off' marks to be declared qualified in the said examination. None is present on behalf of either party. This is a matter of 1989 and the applications having been filed in April, 1990 it appears that the applicants have lost interest in the case and, therefore, both the applications are dismissed in default of the applicants. No costs.
