2. The controversy raised in these applications, came up before us in O.A. No. 3052/91 and the connected O.As decided on 18.03.1994. For reasons stated in the aforesaid O.A. and the connected O.As, we dismiss these O.As but without any order as to costs. The interim orders, passed therein, is vacated. We, however, make it clear that since the applicants had approached this Tribunal during the pendency of the disciplinary proceedings, it will be open to them to challenge the legality of the final order of punishment, if any, passed against them by taking resort to appropriate proceedings before an appropriate forum.

3. There will be no order as to costs.
