O R D E R (ORAL)

Shri Justice K. M. Agarwal -

The learned counsel for the respondents submitted before us that the relief sought for in the application by the applicant has been granted to him by the Government vide their office order No. A-23011/6/94-Estt. dated 17.8.1995. Accordingly, the application has become infructuous. A copy of the office order dated 17.8.1995 has also been filed which may be kept on record.

We verified from the record and found that the main relief sought for by the applicant in the application is that of promotion with retrospective effect from the date when the applicant's juniors were promoted. The office order dated 17.8.1995 would show that the applicant has been promoted on regular basis with effect from 11.8.1995. However, the order also mentions that his name would be included in the select list of Grade 'C' of CSSS for the year 1993. Under the circumstances, we are of the view that substantially, the relief sought for by the applicant in this application has been granted to him. If any other grievance subsists, the applicant shall be at liberty to agitate the same by approaching the government and thereafter the Tribunal, if so advised.

Accordingly, for the reasons aforesaid, this application is hereby dismissed as having become infructuous. No costs.
