2. In the Review Application, the applicant being aware of the limited scope and ambit of the provisions of Order 47 Rule 1 CPC under which alone this lies for review of the judgement of the Tribunal, has alleged that there are number of errors apparent on the face of the judgement. On perusal of the review application, it is clear that what the applicant alleges are errors, are no errors at all but are findings and conclusions in the judgement based on the pleadings, arguments and other materials on record. No new arguments have been advanced which could not have been taken at the time of hearing. The judgement is a reasoned judgement and if the applicant is aggrieved that it is wrong, the remedy lies elsewhere in accordance with law, but the Review Application cannot lie in the circumstances.

3. In the circumstances, this Review Application is dismissed.
