Hon'ble Smt. Lakshmi Swaminathan, Member(J).

We have carefully perused the Review Application and the M.A. for condonation of delay. In the M.A. for condonation of delay, no sufficient reasons have been given for condonation of delay and it is not even stated when the applicant's counsel received the copy of the judgement of the Tribunal dated 7.2.1997/ and when the applicant himself received it. The RA has been filed on 18.11.1997. We, therefore, reject the M.A. for condonation of delay.

2. On perusal of the RA. we also find no merit in this application having regard to the provisions of Order 47 Rule 1 CPC read with Section 22(3)(f) of the Administrative Tribunals Act, 1985 and Rule 17 of the CAT (Procedure) Rules, 1987. It is well settled law (See Parsion Devi and Ors. Vs. Sumitri Devi & Ors. (JT 1997(8) SC 480) that review proceedings have to be strictly confined to the ambit and scope of Order 47 Rule 1 CPC and it cannot be allowed to be an appeal in disguise and it is not permissible to rehear and correct a decision merely because the applicant feels that it is ^{an} erroneous decision in a review application. We, therefore, dismiss this review application both on the grounds of limitation and merit.
