None is present for the applicant. There were none for the parties on the previous date i.e. 20.3.95. On 20.1.95 the learned counsel for the applicant had submitted that the applicant had been granted relief by the respondents though he would like to ascertain the facts.

In view of the above, it appears that the applicant is no longer interested in pursuing the case. Hence, the case is dismissed in default for non-prosecution.
