M.A. 1825/2004

M.A. is allowed subject to just exceptions.

Filing of the joint application is permitted.

O.A. 2166/2004

The applicants by virtue of the present application seek quashing of the order of 29.8.2003.

2. The sum and substance of the plea raised is that on an earlier occasion, certain persons had filed O.A. 18/2004 entitled Brijesh Mathur and others vs. Union of India and another decided on 29.7.2004. It is contended that the selection process had been quashed pertaining to bunching of the vacancies. It was held that it was not permissible. A direction was given to the respondents to earmark periodwise vacancies and hold selection against those vacancies and formulate separate panels for different periods.

3. It is contended that the respondents are going ahead with the remaining 30% selection which was not quashed.

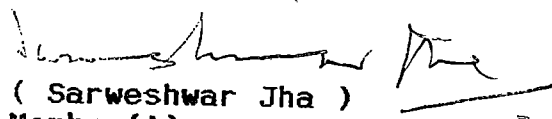

4. Pertaining to that, the applicants have submitted a representation dated 16.8.2004.

5. Once the representation is pending, it should be decided and, therefore, any direction in this regard to take a decision will not affect the rights of the respondents.

GA

6. It is directed that respondent no.2 would consider the said representation dated 16.8.2004 and preferably take a decision before the selection process which is under challenge is completed and communicate to the applicants by passing a speaking order. O.A. is disposed of.
